ABOUT HAMILTON FAMILIES

For over 35 years, Hamilton Families has been creating innovative solutions to end family homelessness. From emergency shelter to rapid rehousing, Hamilton Families puts families first in their time of need.

Our Community Strong Movement

This year Hamilton Families will help over 400 families move beyond homelessness into housing. Join us as we help families find housing, grow roots in their new communities, stabilize, and thrive!

Hamilton Families is working to support children and parents to access community resources, education, and employment opportunities for a strong and thriving future. In order to disrupt the cycle of poverty, we must work together as a community. Our collective efforts make us stronger. Stand up with us for equality and give every child in our community mobility and a future of their dreams!

Join our Community Strong Movement to end family homelessness in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Honoree Rabbi Ryan Bauer Congregation Emanu-El

Rabbi Ryan Bauer is a Senior Associate Rabbi of Congregation Emanu-El. Since 2005, Rabbi Bauer has committed himself to building social justice programs to respond to local and international needs. Bauer has been acknowledged for his work in aiding Syrian refugees and instrumental in forming the Northern California fire concert benefit, Bay Area Band Together. Most recently, his efforts have focused on reducing San Francisco's homeless population, partnering with the Heading Home Campaign for the past two years and is currently working with the city on its Rising Up Campaign to cut youth homelessness in half. He recently spoke at the Weinberg foundation's national convening on Jewish poverty.

Bauer is an interviewer on NPR through City Arts and Lectures and his numerous published articles and podcasts have received international recognition, including in the Financial Times and 929.
